Hir Corruption

by MiaQc

Summary

A one shot. You are on your PC when your screen goes black and you receive messages from someone who needs your help. Nuri, the hotel's evil version, the strange Corruption.

- A translation of Sa Corruption by MiaQc

(Y/N = Your Name.)

You are on your PC when your screen goes black, then messages appear.

[Hey?]

[Is anyone there?]

[I need your help.]

You are able to type a response so you write that you are there.

[Blessed with the legendary Mental Connection! I can't believe I was able to reach someone!]

[What's your name?]

You type in your name.

[Your name is Y/N? Nice. You can help me.]

[Do you see my... the "Corruption"?]

[It should be at the bottom right of your screen.]

Indeed there is a button "Corruption." You type that you see it.

[Great! Select it and you'll see my current Corruption level in %. So, have you looked? How high am I at?]

As you don't have your mouse cursor anymore, you don't know how to click on the button. Then information appears: "10%, Low, Nuri". You then type "Corruption at 10%, also Low."

[Perfect.]

[You must know my name by now. What is it?]

You type in Nuri.

[Yes. What do you think my gender is?]

You have to guess. Nuri seems to be a gender-neutral name, so "non-binary" is your answer.

[Right. How did you guess? You don't see me, after all.]

[Now, you're probably wondering why I'm talking in your head via the Mental Connection. It's a long story.]

In your head? That's not possible. You only see messages on your PC.

[My world is called Amorasin. In the city of Orezion, there is a strange hotel: "Lovers' Eden"].

[According to occult fanatics, room 566 is haunted, or it leads to another world. Something like that.]

[I don't believe in these things, but I won an overnight stay, so I thought, "Why not spend it in 566?"]

[Big mistake.]

[I woke up and... what horror! Everything is blood red, there is a strange smell, and I don't feel safe.]

[I think I've stepped into an evil version of the hotel, into another dimension.]

[I also feel that my body and soul are in danger. Something wants to grow inside me. Something supernatural. The very essence of evil and madness. Corruption.]

[In the end, these occult enthusiasts aren't so crazy. They know about Corruption and the Mental Connection.]

You still don't know what hir is talking about. What is this Mental Connection?

[A psychic link between two people from two different worlds.]

Well, that's the answer to your question, but it still doesn't explain why you can't hear Nuri in your head. You only see hir messages.

[They also talked about spirits, crystals... but I don't think that's going to help us.]

[Anyway, since I can't figure out exactly how high my Corruption is, I called for help and you answered.]

[Your only job is to guide me, while making sure my Corruption doesn't go too high.]

Well, that doesn't sound so hard.

[Well, Y/N, I know I have to get out of here somehow, but I don't know if I have to leave room 566 right away. I know I said I didn't feel safe, but... what if there's an exit there, but hidden?]

[However, if you think I should leave, I will go to the hotel entrance. After all, the main exit is there.]

[So, what should I do?]

You tell them, via your keyboard, to leave the room.

[Okay.]

A few seconds pass.

[I'm out of the room. To get to the hotel entrance, do I take the elevator or the stairs?]

Good question. The elevator is faster, but it could be a trap, so Nuri has to take the stairs.

[Understood for the stairs.]

A few minutes pass.

[I've gone down a floor. I'm on the fourth floor.]

[The walls... They seem to change color. And... are those eyes I see?]

The info about Nuri's corruption reappears: "15%, Weak, Nuri". You type that hir has to keep going.

[Okay. I keep going down.]

A few minutes pass.

[I went down one floor. I'm on the third floor.]

[Something just fell in front of me. It's a corpse!]

[Strangely, I want to look at it more closely.]

The info about Nuri's corruption reappears: "18%, Weak, Nuri". You type that hir should not do that. They must keep going down the stairs.

[Okay.]

A few minutes pass.

[I'm down one floor, I'm on the second floor.]

[I think I hear voices, whispers in my head.]

The info about Nuri's corruption reappears: "20%, Average, Nuri." You type that hir should ignore them and move on.

[Understood.]

A few minutes pass.

[I've gone down one floor. I am on the first floor. The ground floor is close by].

[AH!]

[I see myself, but... I'm a monster!]

[I have tentacles for arms, scorched flesh, and I have - well hir - HAS NO EYES!!!]

[Hir's blocking my way. What do I do?]

The information about Nuri's corruption reappears: "25%, Average, Nuri". You tell them, while still typing, to push the monster down the stairs.

[Good idea, MOVE OUT!!!]

A minute passes.

[I pushed hir... and hir disappeared! I can get to the ground floor!]

A few minutes pass.

[I'm on the ground floor. I can see the exit!]

[It's a big glass door. Well, it looks like it's more crystal made.]

[I approach the door...]

[Oh NO!]

[There are things guarding the door!]

[Monsters... I can't describe them.]

Two minutes pass. The info about Nuri's corruption reappears: "30%, Average, Nuri."

[Y/N! I see a fire extinguisher. I'm going to use it to push these things away and get to the exit!]

A few minutes pass.

[That's it! I'm in front of the crystal door. I just have to open it and—]

[Huh? It doesn't open.]

[Is this a joke? Come on... open up... OPEN!]

A minute passes. The info about Nuri's corruption reappears: "35%, Average, Nuri".

[Well, I'll just break the crystal with the fire extinguisher.]

[And 1! And 2! And 3! SHATTER!!!]

A few minutes pass and the Corruption button disappears.

[Y/N? Here I am again and I am saved!]

[I'm in room 566, but the hotel is back to normal. I'm back in my world!]

[I have to thank you, Y/N. Without you, I would never have made it.]

[I will leave this hotel without further ado and never set foot in it again!]

You're typing that this is a good idea.

[I'm not even going to try to figure out what happened. I'd rather forget the whole thing. What do you think?]

You don't know what to say.

[Anyway, goodbye, Y/N!!!]

All messages disappear and your computer returns to normal. What exactly happened? A mystery.
